

Don't Get Too Comfy | July 14 | Rev. Brian Cook

Acts 9:10-14

Now there was a disciple at Damascus named Ananias. The Lord said to him in a vision, "Ananias." And he said, "Here I am, Lord." And the Lord said to him, "Rise and go to the street called Straight, and at the house of Judas look for a man of Tarsus named Saul, for behold, he is praying, and he has seen in a vision a man named Ananias come in and lay his hands on him so that he might regain his sight." But Ananias answered, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he has done to your saints at Jerusalem. And here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who call on your name."

People often abandon church because they hear a gospel that is

COMFORTING but not COMPELLING.

3 ways to combat comfort:

1. Dig your toes in. (Reject SUPERFICIALITY.)
2. Be unapologetically Christian. (Reject SYNCRETISM.)
3. Do something drastic. (Reject the SIDELINES.)
